THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI EDUARDO FALLIRO): (a) Yes, Sir. The Hut Insurance Scheme for Poor Families in rural areas has been introduced in the country with effect from 1st May, 1988. The Scheme provides relief to poor families in rural areas when their huts and belongings are destroyed by fire. Poor families whose annual family income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 4800|- are eligible under the Scheme. In the event of loss due to fire, the insurance company will pay to the insured an amount of Rs. 1000|- for hut and Rs. 500|- for belongings in the hut destroyed by fire. The entire premium cost in respect of the Scheme will be borne by the Central Government. The Scheme is being operated by the General Insurance Corporation of India through its four subsidiaries viz. (i) National Insurance Company Ltd., (ii) New India Assurance Company Ltd., (iii) Oriental Insurance Company Ltd. and (iv) United India Insurance Company Ltd. with active involvement of the State Governments Union Territories.

The Claims Enquiry-cum-Settlement Officer (CESO) nominated by the State Government will receive applications for compensations, make enquiries about the cause of destruction of the huts, obtain report from Police, satisfy himself that the claimant falls within the category of persons covered under the Scheme and send a report to the Divisional Office of the designated insurance company for settlement and payment of the claim. On receipt of this report from CESO, the Divisional Office of the designated insurance company will make payment to the insured, in full settlement of the claim.

(b) Government of India have requested the State Governments|Union Territories to give wide publicity to the scheme through Revenue|Panchayat Officials and other appropriate field level agencies so as to convey the benefits under the Scheme to the very poor people in rural areas. Wide publicity is being given to the Scheme by the general insurance industry through All India Radio, local language newspapers, Pamphlets, Leaflets, Posters, Wall Paintings, Publicity Vans etc.

(c) Being a measure in support of low income rural people, the Scheme has been uniformly well received throughout the country. The procedure for settlement of claims has been so streamlined to enable the insurance companies to settle the claims speedily in consultation with the State Government Machinery|Agencies involved in the implementation of the Scheme.
